Motion by Willenberg second by Dufty setting a public hearing on Monday, July 1, 2019 at 4:00 to take comments on the proposed ordinance amendment regarding the removal of trees from private and public property. Motion carried.

Building Inspector Report given.

Supervisor Update: Willenberg reported that the basketball hoops should be installed soon.

Public Comments:

Jerry Wroblewski: High water is affecting the docks. The Commission is looking into replacing the wood docks with aluminum and the range lights will be repaired.

Sandy Caine: Wants to build a garage or pole barn and was told they aren't allowed. It was suggested she contact the Building Inspector for requirements.

Corey Smith: Was told the Township owns the small piece of and at the end of White Sand Drive and is planning to put in a road for emergency vehicle access. South Shore Civic Association maintains the property and they are concerned with golf carts and speeders.

Bruce Grubba: Representing Caseville School. He explained the requested bond proposal and the fact that the need for a preschool is community driven.

Board Comments: None.

Meeting adjourned at 4:25 p.m.
